In addition Rhett Smith will be speaking to attendees in a 20 minute session regarding fiduciary responsibilities in today's market: Fiduciary Responsibility – Are You Sure You Know What It Is?

"Through our experience in meeting and talking with contractors, we have found that many contractors are unaware of their entire fiduciary responsibility when it relates to having a pension plan for their employees. Saving for retirement is important whether you are an owner or employee; however, if you are not fully abreast of all the fiduciary responsibilities you may find yourself and your company at great risk." – Rhett Smith.
